

Remember when Secretariat won the Triple Crown, The Godfather won Best Picture, and a first class stamp was 8 cents? That same year, 1973, the curtain rose for Brigadoon at the Ritz Company Playhouse as its very first show!

You may not have been there for the first season, but sometime since you've been a part of the Ritz family. You've seen our shows, donated in support of the theatre, appeared on stage, played in the pit band, or volunteered in many different ways, or maybe all of the above!

Here is your
